Site Updates

We are in the midst of some updates to our site. We appreciate your patience during this time of transition and look forward to introducing new features as they are ready.

Speaking of which, we are excited to introduce the ability to share rate sheets. Only members who have uploaded their own rate sheet(s) will be able to view the rate sheets uploaded by others. You can submit your rate sheet by going to Members > Contribution Upload (linked here) on the site. Once your rate sheet has been approved and uploaded, you will be granted access to all uploaded rate sheets. We hope this can become an informative resource for all of us!
